May you know God's love and abundant blessings in your life

BLESSING OF BABIES: A number of baptisms have been postponed during March and April and I am conscious of these children and their families. We will have special prayers and blessings on Sun. 10th May at the 11am streamed Mass for all babies and their families. If parents wish they can email the intended baptismal name of their child to rathmore@dioceseofkerry.ie for this special blessing.

THE MARY MONTH OF MAY: The yearly traditions that welcome in summer. An old May custom was putting up a May altar in the home which celebrates the arrival of summer. A special table is laid with a cloth, on which is arranged a statue of the Virgin Mary, a blessed candle, an egg cup full of primroses and several vases of wildflowers such as buttercups, wild bluebells and cowslips etc. Children love listening to stories about Mary and Jesus. And they love nature – what a lovely project for them would be picking wildflowers for the May Altar. Praying the rosary or even part of the rosary with the family around the May Altar is another tradition that we remember. In these dizzying times let's remember the old May customs.

NOVENA TO OUR LADY OF FATIMA Tues May 5th to Wed. May 13th

“God sent Me to the world to make the following request”

“There is no problem personal, family, national or international that cannot be solved by the Most Holy Rosary” (Words of Our Lady to Lucia at Fatima) Fr. Pat recites the Holy Rosary before all streamed Masses in St. Joseph's Church. During the Novena He will say the Novena Prayer after the Rosary

END OF AN ERA - NEW BEGINNING AS RETIREMENT BECKONS! Donie Reen, retires from Kerry Agri, Rathmore, on today Friday, 1st May after more than 46 years service. Donie began work on 31st Dec. 1973 for 1 day with the Dairy Disposal Board before it was taken over by Kerry Co-op. On behalf of the parishioners and farming community and your co-workers past and present, we would like to wish you Donie and Sheila and family, a long, healthy and happy retirement. All the best for this new chapter in your life. May all the years ahead bring you great joy and relaxation.
