Mount Melleray Visit (Extract from Mount Melleray Facebook Page)

We were delighted to welcome 40 students from Scoil Phobail Sliabh Luachra yesterday, together with their chaplain Ms Riordan and Fr Pat O'Donnell, the parish priest of Rathmore Parish.

The Cistercians first came to Ireland in 1142 and over the following four centuries there were about 40 Cistercian monasteries in the country. After the Reformation and the suppression of the monasteries in the middle of the sixteenth century Irish men and women who wanted to become monks and nuns had to join monasteries on the continent, especially in France, Spain and Italy. In 1831 the Irish and English monks were evicted from the monastery of Melleray in Brittany and expelled from France. 64 of them arrived by boat to Cobh on 1 December 1831 and from there they went to Rathmore, Co Kerry, where Fr Vincent Ryan had rented a house for them. Six months later, on 30 May 1832, some of the monks came to Scrahan, 5km north of Cappoquin, Co Waterford, to establish Mount Melleray Abbey, but others remained at Rathmore until 1837, by which time some of the monastic buildings had been completed and there was sufficient accommodation for the entire community.

The memory of presence of the Cistercian monks at Rathmore is very much alive in the locality and is commemorated by a plaque at the entrance to the house where the monks lived from 1831-37, now the Parochial House.

The monks of Mt Melleray are also conscious of the welcome and hospitality shown by the people of Rathmore towards their exiled brothers almost 200 years ago and at the back of our church there is a small Celtic cross made from a beam in the house in Rathmore where the monks lived.

Yesterday's visit of the young people from Rathmore to Mount Melleray helps to keep alive the memory and the connection between the two places. The students received a presentation on the history of monastic life and the Cistercian Order, the connections with Rathmore, and monastic life at Mt Melleray today. They joined the monks for Midday Prayer in the church and then walked some of St. Declan's Way and the Mount Melleray Pilgrim Paths to the Cross and the Well.

We hope the students enjoyed their time at Mt Melleray yesterday. They are a credit to their families and great ambassadors for their school. Thanks to Fr Pat and Ms Riordan for organising the visit and we look forward to welcoming more groups from Rathmore to Mt Melleray as we remember with gratitude this important monastic connection.

Rathmore Graveyard Committee:

A big Thank You to each and every one who helped in the cleanup of Rathmore Cemetery ..
